

Estimator Mechanical/Electrical

You will report to the Management of the company

BBGS GmbH, a subgroup of PORR Group, provides comprehensive services related to the construction and operation of buildings for government agencies and international organizations, especially government agencies of the United States. The company's activities include consulting on planning and execution of building and industrial construction projects as well as facility management and energy management of the property and its facilities. Both engineers and architects with extensive experience in these areas implement the customer requests IAW European and U.S. Federal requirements.

Work location
Kaiserslautern or Frankfurt

Key responsibilities

- Prepare estimations of German and international projects for an international client
- Tender on projects in accordance with the contract conditions, design, technical requirements and time constraints
- Organize and coordinate tender projects with the site team, technical support, designer, subcontractors and suppliers and the management
- Prepare tender schedule and works preparation plans
- Prepare list necessary for resources and equipment
- Coordinate tender clarifications with the Client and designer
- Participate in price negotiations with the Client
- Support in Procurement and Modifications in executing projects

Requirements

- Degree in Mechanical or Electrical Engineering
- Specialization in estimation and/or execution of buildings
- At least 5 years of experience managing mechanical or electrical features on construction projects
- Thorough knowledge of contract standards and tendering procedures
- Experience or open mindedness to tender on international projects in English language
- Willingness to travel to different site visits in Europe
- Language skills – English, communicative and in writing
- Driving license
- Computer skills (Word, Excel)

We offer

- Independent working with entrepreneurial freedom
- A full-time position in a dynamic, international firm
- An attractive salary and success-oriented additional benefits
- Great development opportunities with a leader in the construction industry
- Attractive professional training and education possibilities

We look forward to receiving your application, preferably via email:

Email address: c.schumacher@bbgs.eu